International Meetings for Young People

1 INTRODUCTION

With this compilation, published on behalf of the Federal Ministry for Family, Senior Citizens, Women and Youth (Bundesministerium für Familie, Senioren, Frauen und Jugend, BMFSFJ), the International Youth Exchange and Visitors' Service of the Federal Republic of Germany (Internationaler Jugendaustausch- und Besucherdienst der Bundesrepublik Deutschland e.V., IJAB) wishes to provide an overview of the manifold opportunities to take part in international meetings in the Federal Republic of Germany.

In this folder you will find programmes of supra-regional German organisations and companies that are open to individuals. Many of these offer additional programmes for specific groups like school classes, trainees, clubs etc. or will organise trips according to a group's wishes. ➔

2 HOW DO I USE THIS FOLDER?

On the back of this leaflet is a table. On the left of it are the organisations and their addresses that offer programmes with which you can spend your holidays with people of your age from other countries. On the top eleven different types of programmes are specified from which you can choose. The details of these are briefly explained in "types of programmes" on the next page.

Please note that you will have to request exact specifications on the programmes and information material directly from the organisation that you are interested in. ➔

3 IMPORTANT ADDRESSES AND TIPS

● Internationaler Jugendaustausch- und Besucherdienst der Bundesrepublik Deutschland (IJAB) e.V.

Heussallee 30 · 53113 Bonn

Tel.: + 49 (0)228 9506-0 · Fax: + 49 (0)228 9506-199

info@ijab.de · www.ijab.de und www.rausvonzuhause.de

• In addition to this folder IJAB publishes other print products on international mobility for young people (voluntary services, jobs and practical placements, au-pair employment, language courses, academic studies, etc.). All information material is available free of charge from IJAB. Please refer to www.rausvonzuhause.de, IJAB's website for young people, where you will find more information under the menu item "Come to Germany".

● Bundesministerium für Familie, Senioren, Frauen und Jugend (BMFSFJ)

broschuerenstelle@bmfjsfj.bund.de · www.bmfjsfj.de

• All publications by IJAB are published by order of the Federal Ministry for Family, Senior Citizens, Women and Youth (BMFSFJ). This ministry supports political, cultural, and international youth work in the form of donations towards organisations and youth unions. It does not organise programmes itself. Information about youth politics and youth welfare services in Germany as well as numerous additional brochures and publications can be requested free of charge at the BMFSFJ.

● Goethe-Institut Inter Nationes e.V.

• Additional publications as well as extensive material on Germany can be requested from the Goethe Institute Inter Nationes e.V. (www.goethe.de), the largest organisation for international German culture policy. The institute works as a worldwide agency for promoting German language and culture. ➔

AU PAIR

As an au pair you will look after the children of your host family and help with daily chores around the house. Your family provides you with room and board, and gives you pocket money. With five to six working hours a day, one day off per week and a maximum of two or three evenings of baby-sitting, there is enough free, e.g. to attend a language course.

- IJAB: www.rausvonzuhause.de (> Was du machen kannst > Au pair) (German only)

GERMAN COURSES FOR FOREIGNERS

In holiday language courses young people from all around the world can not only learn German, but they can get an insight into German culture and history. On some of these occasions foreign language courses for Germans are held at the same time so that you have the opportunity to get to know each other in the spare time.

STAYING WITH GERMAN FAMILIES

To live with a family is a fabulous opportunity for young foreigners to experience everyday life in Germany – be it two weeks or an entire year. And a language is easiest acquired by being forced to speak it around the clock.

VOLUNTARY SERVICES AND WORKCAMP

There are lots of opportunities for improving your language skills, getting to know new people, or developing a taste for work: e.g. a workcamp renovating a monastery in Bavaria, working at an agricultural co-operative in Thuringia or helping at an environmental protection project planting greens on the dunes on the shores of the North Sea. Workcamps may cover from two to four weeks, voluntary services from three months to one year.

INTERNATIONAL HOLIDAY AND SPORTS MEETINGS

International holiday and sports meetings are youth contacts open to like-minded young people of different nationalities centering on games and sports, discussions and other joint activities. As, in most cases, the return trip to attend these events is made by coach and accommodation is in tents or youth clubs with simple overnight facilities, taking part is not very expensive.

INTERNATIONAL YOUTH MEETINGS AND CULTURAL EVENTS

Young people from different countries come together in order to take part in an activity under a given theme, to practice a hobby jointly or to acquire a new skill - be this horseback-riding, in-line skating, singing, drumming, computer work or photography. There are bi-, tri- and multi-lateral youth meetings.

PRACTICAL PLACEMENTS

To do a practical placement means to get a whiff of work life. An internship in a foreign country teaches something about the specific work and life habits of that country and improves the language skills.

- Eures: <http://europa.eu.int/eures/index.jsp> (European portal site on vocational mobility)
- IJAB: www.rausvonzuhause.de (> Was du machen kannst > Praktika) (German only)

SCHOOL- OR UNIVERSITY VISITS

Young people have the possibility to attend school- or university-courses in Germany for about three to ten month. The school-visit is mostly combined with a home-stay in families.

- Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst (German Academic Exchange Service): www.daad.de (information, German courses, scholarships)

SEMINARS ON VARIOUS TOPICS

Each seminar deals with a specific topic – e.g. graffiti, travelling, public speaking, techno music, or politics – that can be approached in a variety of different ways: use of various media, theatre, excursions or games.

STUDY TRIPS

Study trips focus on visiting and getting to know towns and cities, cultural centres or places situated in a particularly attractive country-side. ☺

Eurodesk

EU Action Programme YOUTH

The EU Action Programme YOUTH promotes youth meetings and initiatives of young people and supports European volunteer services (volunteer services by young people at charitable organisations in European countries of several months duration). Under http://youth.cec.eu.int/hei_pub_en.htm (> Countries > Germany) a data bank provides a list of open places in Germany. You may register for a given programme via the respective partner organisation in your own country, even at short notice. Further information, the list of the YOUTH agencies in all EU countries and other European states who will pass on addresses of possible sending organisations, may be found on the Internet under http://europa.eu.int/comm/youth/program/index_en.html.

Youth and Coordination Offices

The Youth and Coordination Offices work on a bilateral level and promote getting to know each other, mutual understanding and collaboration of young people.
